Willingly

Dark days bring pain
You thought I'd say rain
I wish that's all it was
The clouds would have a reason

She uses me openly
And I participate willingly
Is slavery really gone?
Or just voluntary now?
When did I wake up?
Not yet

I like my motives
Good intent
Not criminal in nature
Perhaps just beyond consent
Not very smart when hearts rule
Trouble looks for you
And finds you - willing

Somebody call me
Who’s worth this shit
Friday night "I love you"
Wasn't me
Likely never be
Willingly - not me

And afterwards, I can go to hell
Waiting from the beginning
The place knows me well
You can't sell your soul
But you can loan it out for a bit
Not worth the taking
Handshaking - willingly

If I bleed out into a cup
Would you tell the truth?
Do I really want to know?
What you think of me?
Willingly?

Probably the worst things
I've heard about
Will come from you
Sticks and stoned
Cause large holes in my head

Willingly
